

173D AIRBORNE BRIGADE FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

This scholarship fund is in memory of our fallen comrades who have died in Vietnam, Iraq and Afghanistan.

The Scholarship committee seeks to award scholarships to applicants displaying the potential for a degree in higher education, whether it is technical, university or professional. The committee evaluates each applicant in three areas.

Part I Personal information

Please completely fill out the entire page as fully as possible.

Part II Essay

Please DO NOT put your name on any reference to your sponsor in this part. This allows the committee to judge your ability to analyze, balance and express yourself in writing. There is no right or wrong answers to this question. There are five questions to be answered.

Part III Academic Evaluation

Please attach an official copy of your grades from the last academic term you attended. Failure to include your grades is an automatic dismissal of the application. If you wish to explain any low marks concerning grades or conduct, please feel free to do so. Our main emphasis is character. This is not your traditional academic scholarship. We are looking for applicants with character, dedication and ability. Extracurricular activities are worth mentioning.

Return your completed application and transcripts to: William Vose; Chairman - Scholarship Committee, 1104 Bahama Dr., Orlando, FL 32806, wcvose@cfl.rr.com
